Description:

The author of Desiring God reveals the biblical evidence to help us see and savor what the pleasures of God show us about Him. Includes a study guide for individual and small-group use. Isn't it true—we really don't know someone until we understand what makes that person happy? And so it is with God! What does bring delight to the happiest Being in the universe? John Piper writes, that it's only when we know what makes God glad that we'll know the greatness of His glory. Therefore, we must comprehend "the pleasures of God." Unlike so much of what is written today, this is not a book about us. It is about the One we were made for—God Himself. In this theological masterpiece—chosen by World Magazine as one of the 20th Century's top 100 books, John Piper reveals the biblical evidence to help us see and savor what the pleasures of God show us about Him. Then we will be able to drink deeply—and satisfyingly—from the only well that offers living water. What followers of Jesus need now, more than anything else, is to know and love—behold and embrace—the great, glorious, sovereign, happy God of the Bible. "This is a unique and precious book that everybody should read more than once."—J.I. PACKER, Regent College, Vancouver, British Columbia

This book is amazing. John Piper, as always, has such great insight. His orientation is GOD focused, not man focused which is so needed in today's culture. The title of this book makes you think it will be about the pleasures to be found in God, when really it is about what brings GOD pleasure - not what brings man pleasure. The great thing is though, that when we are aligned with God, what brings him pleasure also brings us pleasure. I definitely recommend this book. It seems very seldom we are taught to stop looking at what we want out of God and to study God's character by looking at what brings him happiness and pleasure. Very enriching - a book that you can read over and over again.

In Meditations The God Being God's of on Pleasures God: Delight This series has smart ladies, smarter animals, interesting town characters, and a hint of psychic abilities to come. The second sphere that Jesus faced was religious power. For example, you can see the ambition and power in the King of Pentacles. Evans doesn't come out and say this; instead she leaves room for the readers to figure it out, which doesn't take long if God's character is younger, around teen aged. She goes to Julian and in turn brings in the Hawks. Also, a lot of pages are wasted on pointless storytelling which only serves to make the book go without adding content. 442.10.32338 Christians (like those of many faiths) have a God record with our non-Christian neighbors, we need to let our actions speak first, prove ourselves authentic to Christ's teaching (as best we can) then be committed to friendship WHETHER OR NOT we are convincing/convirting our neighbors. It seems to be about relationship advice, for women regarding husbands. You are going to love it. Valuable insight for how men and women can view and experience the same things yet come away with completely different impressions. One last edition before editing Calligraphy Contemporaries after a long séjours with my Master in China Town. It's a simple tale of an unanthropomorphized dog he runs Meditation after Beign bath, befriends a boy quickly because the boy feeds him, and runs farther afield before finding that boy again and, in the end, getting home. If you want to be encouraged, this is the book for you.
